

Certification of Materials Origin (CMO)
(Required for Acceptance of Construction Materials and Manufactured Products)

Table with fields: Contract, Project No., Location, Contractor, Subcontractor / Supplier, Materials: Bid Item, Quantity, Description

The following Certification of Materials Origin (CMO) is made for the purpose of establishing manufactured products and construction materials acceptance under Contract Provisions entitled "Buy America." Construction Materials and Manufactured Products as described above are furnished for use in compliance with the certification as noted in 1 or 2 below.

- 1. The materials covered by this certification are American Made with all manufacturing and/or construction processes done entirely within the United States of America.
2. The materials furnished for this project under this certification contain products or processes, all or in part, done outside the United States of America, or its trail of manufacture cannot be certified.

The Description and Country of Origin of these materials is as follows:
The Invoice Cost for the above described foreign-made materials is:

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

Authorized Corporate Official Printed Name, Phone #, Authorized Corporate Official Signature, Date, Location

ATTACHMENT: MILL TEST REPORTS